

Self-Guided Walks

Country lanes around Salehurst

Welcome to the High Weald National Landscape, an unspoilt medieval landscape. The current state of the climate in the High Weald is leading to wetter winters, this combined with the famous Wealden clay can lead to very difficult walking conditions in rural areas. Fortunately, there are still a good variety of quiet country lanes that can offer an acceptable alternative. Lane walking is not as boring as you may think, there are often many attractive properties to admire, and the views can be most impressive. What follows is one such walk, when undertaking the walk always be aware of traffic and walk in single file on the right of the road, except when a bend to the right will make you invisible to oncoming vehicles, in which case walk on the left of the road.

I-Spy Something to look out for on your walk

Two

Leave the lorry park and cross over the A21 at the pedestrian crossing.

Turn right and after a few yards turn left onto a surfaced footpath and proceed in a northerly direction.

The path opens out into a housing estate, continue straight on along the road almost to the far end and look for a footpath on the left.

Go through the gate into the Woodland Trust wood beyond. This is the only location where mud may be an issue on this walk.

Continue straight up through the wood and at the top go up some steps and over a stile into the field beyond.

Follow the line of the hedge through the field and at the end go over a stile onto the lane beyond.

Turn left along the lane, Beech House Lane, and continue for 0.64 miles to the junction.

Turn right at the junction. This next stretch will carry more traffic than the previous lane but is fairly straight and so you will be aware of traffic in good time.

Walk along this road for 1.25 miles and take the second turning on the right, Bourne Lane.

Continue along the lane for 1 mile and then turn left on to Rocks Hill.

Follow this lane for 0.75 miles until you reach Salehurst Church.

Just around the corner, in Church Road, you will find the Salehurst Halt, this is an excellent hostelry to stop at for some refreshments.

When you are suitably refreshed, to a lesser or greater degree, continue to walk along Church Road to the roundabout on the A21.

Cross over at the traffic lights and return to the lorry park.
